Blackmail in India.

Calcutta, June 17.—An investigation by Governor Frazer discloses unprecedented blackmail and corruption in the prosecutions for murder in the police service. The investigation followed the overruling by a high court of the conviction of three natives for complicity in a bomb plot. The strongest witness admitted ignorance of the case. The confession of the prisoners was proved secured by force.
Many rich natives are blackmailed and some are exiled when they refuse to disgorge.

Dinner to Club Women.

Sunday's Courier-Journal says of Mrs. John Thixton's dinner to Mrs.
Letcher Riker and Mrs. Philip N.
Moore:

"Mrs. John Thixton, of Owensboro, who is famous in the state as a charming hostess, gave one of the most beautiful dinners ever given in Owensboro last Wednesday evening in honor of Mrs. Philip N. Moore, of St. Louis, president of the General Federation of Women's clubs of America, and Mrs. Letcher Riker, of Harrodsburg, former president of the Kentucky Federation of Women's clubs. The decorations were in pink and green and the centerpiece was an old silver pitcher filled with Killarny roses, around which were silver vases filled with the same flowers.
One has rarely seen such a beautiful display of silver, glass and china as was used that evening on Mrs. Thixton's table, and her guests were composed of a most distinguished body of club women, who are charming socially, and have great intellectual and executive ability."

Paducah club women who were guests at the dinner were: Mrs.
James A. Rudy, of the state executive board and president of the Paducah Woman's club; Mrs. Hubbard S.
Wells, president of the Paducah Mat-tine Musical club, and Mrs. George B.
Hart, who was on the federation program of this year.

Nashville Wedding of Interest Here.

A social notice from Wednesday's Nashville Banner has special interest here where the bride, a woman of great brilliancy and charm of personality is prominently related, being a sister of E. H. Brinkhurst and a niece of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Scott, 725 Madison street. She has visited Paducah on several occasions and was an attractive guest at the marriage of Miss Martha Davis and Mr. Edward Brinkhurst. Mrs. Estes was formerly state librarian of Tennessee:

"Beautiful, though quiet in all its solemnization and an event of interest to many friends, was the marriage of Mrs. Lulu Brinkhurst Epperson and Mr. Moreau Pinkney Estes at 11 o'clock this morning at the home of the bride's brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Clarke. There were present to witness the ceremony only the family connection and a limited company of close friends. Mr.
Estes' cousin, Dr. Edgar Folk, was the officiant, and the Italian orchestra played the wedding music. The house was artistically decorated with a wealth of palms and ferns, graceful hangings of bamboo vines, pink hydrangeas, gladioli and roses. An enclosed porch hung with vines and converted into an out-of-door sitting room, was an attractive feature. The scene of the ceremony was a bay window, which was decorated with pink hydrangeas and potted plants. There were no attendants and the bride was lovely in gray crepe, with a net lace embroidered in silver and real lace medallions. She carried a bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley.

"The guests were received by the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R.
Brinkhurst of Clarksville, and her sisters, Mrs. Clarke, Mrs. W. S. Booten of Atlanta, Mrs. David Neilson and Miss Mary Brinkhurst of Clarksville, with Miss Mollie Claiborne, Mrs.
James McLaughlin, Mrs. P. M. Estes and Mrs. J. H. Zarecor. Among the wedding guests from out of town were Mr. Estes' father, Judge J. H.
Estes and brother, Mr. Anderson Estes of Brownsville, and Miss Sara Eperson, who came here from school at Fairmount seminary at Montague to attend the wedding, with Miss Bartlett. Others present from a distance besides the members of the family connection from Clarksville mentioned above were Mrs. Ernest Elder, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Snaden, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Dunlop, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Leech and Mr. and Mrs.
Austin Peay, all of Clarksville; Mrs.
Walter Stewart of Natchez, Miss., and Mrs. Walter Jones of Houston, Tex.

"Ice served in miniature silver buckets, tower cakes and bonbons were dispensed after the ceremony.
"Mr. and Mrs. Estes left at noon today for a ten days' wedding trip, and on their return they will be at home for the summer in the apartment of Mr. and Mrs. M. Woolwine.
The bride's traveling costume was dark blue, with a hat trimmed with pastel roses.

"They received a handsome collection of wedding gifts, which came with cordial good wishes.

"After the wedding the out-of-town guests remained and were entertained informally at luncheon by Mr. and Mrs. Clarke, a tempting menu being served at small tables on the veranda."

AN OLD-TIME PRESCRIPTION

In a modern product. From time immemorial sage and sulphur have been used for the hair and scalp. Almost every one knows of the value of such a combination for darkening the hair and making it grow. In olden times the only way to get a hair tonic of this sort was to brew it in the home fireplace, a method which was troublesome and not always satisfactory. Nowadays almost every up-to-date druggist can supply his patrons with a ready to use product, skillfully compounded in perfectly equipped laboratories. Such a preparation is Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, which is sold by all leading druggists for 50c, and $1.00 a bottle, or which is sent direct by the Wyeth Chemical Company, 74 Cortlandt St., New York City, upon receipt of price. For sale and recommended by W. J. Gilbert.
